I. Purpose of the Policy:

This document aims to lay out the objectives, scope, and philosophy of ChrysCapital's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Policy (the "Policy").

The objective of this Policy is to:

1. Foster an inclusive workplace that is appreciative of the ideas, values, and perspectives contributed by a diverse set of partners, employees, and advisors;
2. Create a working environment free of bullying, harassment, victimization, and unlawful discrimination, promoting dignity and respect for all, and where individual differences and the contributions of all employees are acknowledged and valued;
3. Acknowledge and adapt, where appropriate and needed, our workplace environment to ensure the success of all;
4. To ensure that all employees have an equal chance to contribute and to achieve their potential, irrespective of any defining feature that may give rise to unfair discrimination and provide training and progression, where possible, to enable this so their talents and resources can be fully utilized to maximize the efficiency of the Group;
5. Take complaints of bullying, harassment, victimization and unlawful discrimination by employees, clients, suppliers, visitors, and any others encountered in the course of the businesses work activities very seriously and we encourage employees to discuss and report any concerns they have through their Manager or directly to HR.
6. Ensure ChrysCapital continues to provide equal opportunity employment to candidates irrespective of their gender identity, physical abilities, caste, creed, ethnicity, religion, marital status, age, sexual orientation and expression, medical condition, geographical origin, dialect, etc;
7. Ensure that employees, potential, current and previous, are treated fairly and with respect at all stages of their relationship with CC. In line with this, we are committed to reviewing our policies, training and processes to ensure they are in line with our obligations under this Policy;

8. To train managers and all other employees about their rights and responsibilities under this Policy. Responsibilities include staff conducting themselves to help the business provide equal opportunities in employment, and prevent bullying, harassment, victimization and unlawful discrimination;
9. To ensure that decisions concerning staff will be based on merit (apart from in any necessary and limited exemptions and exceptions allowed under legislation);
10. Involve, accept, and value all people in the workplace regardless of their differences and social identity;
11. Foster, cultivate, and preserve a culture of diversity, equity, and inclusion for all its stakeholders; and
12. Create zero-tolerance for discrimination of any kind; and
13. To ensure that Employment practices and procedures are reviewed when necessary to ensure fairness, and also update them and the policy to take account of changes in the law in all countries where we have a presence and/or where we have staff.

II. Scope:
